The Columbiana County Board of Elections lobby will be closed to the public until further notice. Following the recommended guidelines set forth by both the federal and state government, our office made this decision to not only protect the public, but our staff as well. “It is imperative to protect our office staff and keep them healthy to serve Columbiana County voters in future elections,” Director Kim Fusco said. Our office remains staffed during regular business hours Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. to assist the public via phone, fax, email, and mail. Columbiana County residents are able to drop off absentee ballot requests in the main office doorway to be received by staff throughout the day. Voters wishing to obtain an absentee ballot request from our office can also find those forms in our main doorway. Additionally, the request form can be found on our website at www.columbiana.boe.ohio.gov. Our office remains committed to assisting voters during this time while adhering to the best practices set forth by national and state health experts.
